

Readers' Choice Awards

The Village Pantry

Reader's Choice 2004 Winner for BEST BURGER

It takes more than ingredients and technique to create a quality meal. An exceptional restaurant puts something of itself into each preparation and always puts its customers' needs first. The Village Pantry in Los Altos is an old-fashioned restaurant that has been established since 1949. The Village Pantry has had five previous owners since it opened on Second Street in the 1940s, but is now owned by David and Julie Oglivie, who has kept intact the restaurant's original appeal. Charming, family-oriented and customer service at its heart the Village Pantry provides with great American breakfasts and lunches. The light blue walls are covered with made of fresh, lean ground beef topped with grilled onions.

The Cheese-burger Deluxe provides a choice of Swiss or American cheese while the California Burger is served with avocado, jack cheese and topped with bacon. The Garden Burger is a meatless, home made burger, made up of a scrumptious blend of low-fat, whole grains. The Burger Special is served with grilled onions, tomato, mushrooms and melted cheese. The Turkey Burger is moist and flavorful. The Mushroom Burger is smothered with sautéed mushrooms.

In addition to offering its charming in house dining, the Village Pantry is an excellent choice for catering services as well as food to go. Stop by the restaurant and enjoy breakfast or lunch on the beautiful back porch patio. Bring your family down to the Village Pantry. They love to serve you!

The Village Pantry is located at 184 Second Street in Los Altos. They can be reached at (650) 941-0384. For more information, please visit their website at www.thevillagepantry.com.

photo collages of local children who have dined there over the years as well as newspaper reviews, which serve as a testimony to the restaurant's popularity.

Although their specialties include pancakes, Belgian waffles, French toast and omelettes among other things, the Village Pantry is being recognized as the Readers' Choice 2004 Winner for the Best Burger. The Village Pantry provides you with a selection of seven unique burgers, consisting of a quarter pound of beef served with tomatoes, onions, pickles, lettuce and a choice of French fries, soup or coleslaw. The Hamburger Deluxe is

